

Band 1 Status for Camilleri Preziosi - Chambers & Partners

Camilleri Preziosi has yet again been rated by Chambers and Partners, an international independent legal directory, as one of the leading law firms in Malta. Camilleri Preziosi was awarded band 1 status, being the highest score, for Corporate/Commercial and band 2 for Financial Services. On an individual lawyer level with two partners ranked in band 1 for corporate and commercial work whilst one partner ranked in band 1 for financial services work. The firm has been topping the charts consistently in all the major legal directories, namely Chambers & Partners, Legal500 and IFLR1000.

Chambers and Partners has an extensive research team gathering information from legal firm submissions, client and peer interviews from which the ranking originates.

Louis de Gabriele, senior Partner at Camilleri Preziosi, was pleased with the results: "Of course we are pleased to receive this recognition from a reputable directory like Chambers & Partners. We have been receiving this level of recognition from all the major legal directories consistently year after year, as we continue to pursue a client centric strategy and improving our service levels to clients. "
