

CAMILLERI PREZIOSI

ADVOCATES

The firm has been growing steadily and we are committed to sustain this growth into the future. We recognise that our business is a people business and we invest substantially in recruiting, training and retaining the best people to ensure that our clients have access to the highest quality of legal advice.

“

As a result of the growth we are experiencing,
we are seeking to employ a

LAWYER.

At Camilleri Preziosi we ensure that all engagements are conducted in a manner which is highly sensitive to the client's needs. We achieve this through our commercially-oriented lawyers. In this role you will be acting for high-profile clients as part of a team handling a wide range of complex matters ranging from general commercial and corporate law issues and disputes, to maritime and aviation claims as well as intellectual property issues, amongst others. Ideally, but not necessarily, you will have experience in handling and resolving contentious issues.

This position calls for a highly-motivated, energetic individual with a positive approach, a strong personality and an excellent academic record.

This is an opportunity to contribute in a number of complex and challenging matters and to work for a firm which is engaged in local and international high-end work. In this role the selected applicant will be working closely with the firm's Partners and can expect to work in a professional yet friendly environment and in a supportive team.
